I am happy to be at the keys typing this note. I didn't realize how long it has been since my last until all the news that fit to print overwhelmed the space I have on the page. So here goes.

Have you been to the new Seatown?? For the last 27 years the possibility of having a restaurant on the corners of Pike Place, Western Ave and Virginia St. has been nipping at my pea brain. Seatown is blessed with a view down the well-worn cobblestones of Pike Place Market all the way to the iconic market clock bearing the familiar market slogan "Meet the Producer". You can take a broad look over Victor Steinbrueck Park, Elliot Bay, and Harbor Island and even get a breathtaking visit from Mt. Rainier once in a while. This has to be one of the most natural dining places in the whole city. My dreams came to fruition when the space that housed Habits furniture store next to Etta's became available this last spring.
