Cooking With Soul at Dahlia Workshop

Join us for cooking classes that offer techniques on how to make delicious, healthy everyday food and how to choose modestly priced wines to go with the menu!

The beautiful Dahlia Workshop kitchen, where Tom Douglas' bread and pastry production happens is hosting a night time series where we'll be cooking up a storm! The class will blend demonstrations from our chefs and hands on participation. Each class will include a butchering technique, fresh takes on vegetables and innovative grain dishes. Our neighbors at Soul Wine will pick the perfect wine accompaniments.

In a relaxed and convivial environment, we will cook together and eat what we make! Participants take home recipe cards and an opportunity to buy the wines at a promotional price.

These classes are recommended for adults ages 18 and older.
