Hello friends, bakers, and cookie-lovers~

We couldn't be happier to tell you—our baby, The Dahlia Bakery Cookbook: Sweetness in Seattle is finally here. And boy oh boy, are we ready to celebrate!

On October 22 from 3-7pm, we will be hosting an open house at the Dahlia Workshop, 401 Westlake Ave N. We will throw open our doors for you to raise a glass of bubbles with us, peruse our production bakery where all the treats come to life, and get your very own copy of the book signed by Tom so that you can bring your favorites to life in your own kitchen. Come watch our talented bakers at work and meet the faces behind the recipes. Talk to Tom about his grandma's schnecken and have him sign your book. Eat dessert for dinner and then go up to Serious Pie for pizza for dessert—we would love to see you.

This labor of love is packed full of 125 of our very favorite recipes, carefully and repeatedly tested to make sure that they will make you the best baker you know (it's okay to brag). Revealed in these pages, you will see longtime staples of the Dahlia Bakery, from the Peanut Butter Sandwich cookies to the Maple Eclairs to that crazy delicious Pumpkin Pie. We've included savory treats for you to make sure that you have a go-to from Jackie's Strata for breakfast or classic English Muffin Sandwiches for brunch all the way through late afternoon Tom's Tomato Soup and a scoop of homemade ice cream for dessert.

Thank you to all of you who have supported the Dahlia Bakery over the years, we couldn't be more proud to be inspired by you.

The Nitty Gritty:
